Tech set for FSU

ATLANTA - Georgia Tech can move toward its first Atlantic Coast Conference crown in eight years and further damage Florida State's league title hopes when they collide Saturday evening. The No. 19 Yellow Jackets (5-1, 4-0 ACC) are the conference's lone unbeaten team after rallying from a 21-point deficit last Saturday to defeat previously undefeated Virginia, 41-38. An FSU loss would all but eliminate the Seminoles (6-1, 3-1), who have won or shared the league championship in all five seasons in the ACC.
